Reverend's Corner

Heather and I attended Trinity Myrtle Beach on our last Sunday in Myrtle Beach last fall (2016) at their Traditional service (11am) and this past Sunday we attended the 9am Contemporary service finding a welcoming community. Suffice to say, we find a welcoming community where we can worship and be with God in many rich ways which is a good thing

This morning's Bible Study was the 6th part of a series focused on the Story of King David. They are theme based Bible Studies which follow the chosen readings for the upcoming weeks (not the lectionary which we follow). We all have our views of King David with foundational beliefs that David was chosen by God to deliver his (His) people. And we all have our thoughts about the ways in which David wandered in judgement – yet God stayed with him. This like many others who God, Jesus called to be His disciples were not perfect, yet God valued and used them to spread His love. This is our message as we go forward; if God made these choices and found them of great value, all of us need to embrace our faults as being normal – human traits, as we get ready to step forward for God's calling on our own ministries for His Glory here at Trinity.

In the words of a great friend of Heather and mine who recently died. He had two rules, 1) don't sweat the small stuff, and 2) it is all small stuff. We get tied up with our own issues or those issues that cause us rifts personally or in the church when it is all about Love and sharing Love (God's Love) to each other and particularly to those who have yet to hear this story.

It is great to see the depth of new life in the Anglican Church at home, with all the new ministry celebrations on the horizons, Trinity Church Kingston, Rev. Douglas Painter October 22, Parish of St. James, Moncton Rev. Wendy Amos-Brinks October 29, and Parish of Rothesay Rev. Paul Rideout on Nov 12th. We need to celebrate this growth for these faithful communities.

May your week be one where you find time to sort out the 'small stuff' and what is really important in your life. God Bless, - Steven Items needed are Peanut Butter, Pancake mix / syrup, Kraft Dinner, Rice, Canned tomatoes, canned meat like ham, tuna etc., Hamburger Helper, canned fruit and canned vegetables. There are two baskets, one at each entrance for your donation and they will be brought up to the Altar for receiving and blessings with the offering.

Christmas Memories booklet: Do we have enough Christmas memories to do another in the series of booklets that have been produced bi-annually since I came Trinity? I am willing to undertake this as it usually brought a few hundred dollars in revenue for the church, but I need to know if you have stories, photos, drawings, old cards, memories, toys of yesteryear, poems, etc., you'd be willing to share with me to add to some I have, and some I can gather from those who are not members of the congregation, but who like this effort and always buy a few copies for gifts at Christmas. Let me know if you're interested by sending an e mail to gosswalk@nbnet.nb.ca. I'll leave some back copies in the Bennett Room for a few Sundays to give examples of what has been done in the past. You can also call me at 672 8601.

"A guide to Trinity Anglican church through sketches by church member Helen Webb..." has been recopied, as the original was not as well reproduced as it might have been due to a copier malfunction. If you have purchased a marred copy, simply see Helen Webb or David Goss and your copy will be replaced. This booklet is now available for sale to visitors, or to members at $5.00 each. It is in a display rack at the Germain Street entrance. Please consider a purchase for yourself or as a gift to someone else. Only 50 copies are available in this print run, so act quickly. You can also see Helen or David after the Sunday service to make a purchase.

Finances to end of September

We are $590 dollars ahead of our budget prediction for the period 1 January to 30 September. However, remember that the budget was "balanced" by underpaying the Diocese to the tune of almost $13 000. We need to find that money by year end.

The budget is currently not a reliable management tool without explanation. Several items of expenditure and revenue that actually occurred were not planned.

Our offering plate income is down by $7 800; this was partially offset by unexpected income from the McKean Estate of $5 687. Our fundraising efforts to date have netted an unexpected $25 363. The summer students show an adverse number vis a vis budget, but this can be ignored as with the passage of time the grant money from the government will erase it; our fuel outlay is adverse to budget by $800. We overspent on electricity and oil but underspent on natural gas. We unexpectedly spent money on heavy maintenance – the roof repair cost (a lot) more than the insurance covered; the tower investigative work was expensive and unplanned; other smaller items were not anticipated either. Without our fundraising undertakings we would be in the soup and we are not in clear sailing yet either as by year end we need money for the Diocese.

Website: For those who cannot wait till Sunday to read the bulletin, it is available via Trinity Website on Fridays, thanks to Laurelle
