Reverend's Corner

I am writing this brief note to you on the eve of my departure, as I may not be in communication till after your Thanksgiving Bulletin goes to print.

My thanks go out to Rev. Terence Chandra and Rev. Canon Wally Corey for their leadership on this Thanksgiving Sunday. We are blessed to have such gifted Priests in our midst and on behalf of Trinity we appreciate your support in our ministry.

I have to say I have never felt so much optimism as I do now having a concise VISION for our spiritual family as we chart our way as we begin to live out our Vision – where Trinity Church is a Warm, Attractive, Thriving Christian Community. These are exciting times for Trinity, and realizing at this point you have your vestry charged up, you all will soon be involved in many facets as we stretch our dreams and see our collective desire where we see 200 sitting in our pews. WAT you say – exactly – Warm, Attractive, Thriving – that is what Trinity will be known for very soon.

I truly will miss not being in worship with you on Thanksgiving Sunday – remembering how beautiful churches such as Trinity are adorned with fall decorations of foliage, produce and crafts. I will be worshiping at Trinity in North Myrtle Beach, N.C. – realizing the US celebrates their Thanksgiving on November 23, 2017.

We have so much to be thankful for, our family and in particular those who have passed on and are out of our sight, our current family and friends. As we take stock in the many blessings we have at the hand of God in our lives take time to share some of your favourite family stories bring many to the forefront through your recollection of their gifts in your life. It is a great time to reflect on what is truly important as we intentionally slow down and center our focus on family and friends.

I am sincere when I say, I am truly thankful of Bishop David Edwards offering me the opportunity to let my name stand for your Priest and to you, my family, for accepting me and all my quirks so openly.

Hats off you all of you, for your wonderful response to our new tradition of 'Cereal Sunday' being the first Sunday of each month – you have provided twenty-two boxes of cereal which were delivered to St. Luke's Anglican Church on Monday in support of their street ministry. Trinity will be welcoming non-perishable foods on the remaining Sunday's which will be provided to the uptown foodbank. Please remember we are entering into the more difficult time of year for many when living costs increase. When we pick up our groceries remember those in our community and pick up one or two items for your faith community and place them in the baskets at the front.

Blessings to you all and I wish you all have a Happy Thanksgiving weekend with your family and friends.

Rev. Steven

Salmon Dinner - Hats off to all who made the Salmon Dinner a great success. By your hard work you created an evening where Trinity shared the warmth of our Trinity community. Well done, enjoyed by all and a profitable evening which supports Trinity to be thriving and able to support our ministries.

Christmas Memories booklet: Do we have enough Christmas memories to do another in the series of booklets that have been produced bi-annually since I came Trinity? I am willing to undertake this as it usually brought a few hundred dollars in revenue for the church, but I need to know if you have stories, photos, drawings, old cards, memories, toys of yesteryear, poems, etc., you'd be willing to share with me to add to some I have, and some I can gather from those who are not members of the congregation, but who like this effort and always buy a few copies for gifts at Christmas. Let me know if you're interested by sending an e mail to gosswalk@nbnet.nb.ca. I'll leave some back copies in the Bennett Room for a few Sundays to give examples of what has been done in the past. You can also call me at 672 8601. "A guide to Trinity Anglican church through sketches by church member Helen Webb..." has been recopied, as the original was not as well reproduced as it might have been due to a copier malfunction. If you have purchased a marred copy, simply see Helen Webb or David Goss and your copy will be replaced. This booklet is now available for sale to visitors, or to members at $5.00 each. It is in a display rack at the Germain Street entrance. Please consider a purchase for yourself or as a gift to someone else. Only 50 copies are available in this print run, so act quickly. You can also see Helen or David after the Sunday service to make a purchase.

Lunch and Learn - Keep Your Mind For Later Use - Please join me to hear guest speakers talk about the healthy brain and what we can do to maintain this. Programs will be offered October 17th and 31st and November 14th and 28th from 12:15-1:15 pm at Stone church. This program has been developed to help improve our lives, the lives of our fellow parishioners and our neighbors. There is a growing need for knowledge to understand cognitive well-being for the growing number of adults this is affecting. The data shows that active participation in a faith community plays a significant role in maintaining health. Coffee and tea will be provided. Please bring your own bagged lunch. If interested please contact Beth Lawson at 642-7348
