ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

O CANADA

Let us remember before God, and commend to his mercy and keeping, those who have died for their country in war; those whom we know and whose memory we treasure; and all who have laid down their lives for humanity.

Let us pray.

O God we remember before you those who laid down their lives for freedom and truth. We commend their souls into your gracious keeping, and pray that your grace may make us worthy of their sacrifice. Help us to be faithful and true to those ideals for which they fought and died. May we continue to perpetuate the memory of our departed comrades by our service to Veterans and their loved ones, and remembering our solemn obligations, may we ever pray. Lord God of hosts, be with us yet

All: Lest we forget, lest we forget.

THE LAST POST:

Don White – Trumpeter

A minute of silence

REVEILLE

Don White - Trumpeter

They shall not grow old, as we who are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn;
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
....we will remember them.

All: We will remember them.

THE LAYING OF WREATH

The wreath will be laid in memory of fallen soldiers and veterans – by Byron Thomas

Poem: In Flanders Fields – by John McCrae - Byron Thomas

The Royal Anthem

THE MARCH OF TIME

read by Susanne Sutton

They march along to the beat of the band,
These are the vets who fought in a foreign land.
There are fewer today as time goes by,
Age catches up and they die.

Shoulders stooped, limps, canes and aching thigh,
These proud soldiers march with heads held high.
Their steps are spry as they pass through the crowd,
Young once, older now, but just as proud.

They know the meaning of "Lest We Forget."
As they remember comrades who paid the supreme debt.
On to the cenotaph rank and file,
To lay the wreaths in accustomed style.

It is a sight that pulls at the stout hearted,
As silence is observed for those who have departed.
I am grateful to these men and their mates,
"LEST US NOT FORGET" them, on this date.

In Flanders Fields

read by Byron Thomas

By: Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, MD (1872-1918)
Canadian Army

IN FLANDERS FIELDS the poppies blow
Between the crosses row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2019 Canadian Church Calendar: $5.00 plus tax =$5.75

The 2019 Canadian Church Calendar presents images and texts that tell us of what's happening, in and around and because of our Church. One can preview online; Anglican.ca/calendar. If you would like one or more, please call or email the church office at (693-8558) or email: trinsj@nb.aibn.com to place your order by Nov.30th, 2018.

Trinity Chi Rho Club: Chi Rho will meet on Wed. Nov. 14th, at 2:00 pm in the Bennett Room, Trinity Centre. Our program will be a presentation by Cdr. The Rev. David B. Peer, CD, PEng, RCN(ret), "the Role of the Cdn Navy in the 21st Century". All Welcome! Tea will be served at about 3:30 pm.

Trinity has been in conversation with St. Andrews-St. David (SASD) United Church over the past several months, as they were investigating options for their Ministry and Outreach. After the sale of their building SASD have secured space in the Admiral Beatty Complex adjacent to Trinity, Charlotte Street and are in the process of renovating this space for Worship. Trinity welcomes SASD as they will be renting the kitchen, Bennett room and middle room every 4th Tuesday of each month for their Community Dinners. SASD serve upwards of 125-140 meals. In addition SASD will use the Bennett room for the month of November for their 10:00 am Sunday Worship and the Bennett Room Thursday evenings 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm for Choir practice. We plan to have a joint coffee hour following our respective services – an opportunity to renew some old friendships and make some new ones with our soon to be New Neighbours. Please extend a warm Trinity welcome to our neighbours.

Rev. Steven G. Scribner

Trinity's Semi Annual Book Sale will be on the weekend of November 23-24th, 4-7 Friday, and 9- 11:30 Saturday and we are soliciting help for the event. We have an extra problem this year, as there is a Musical event on the 27th, and they require some space in the same area used for the book sale, so, we need some extra bodies to push back the books after the sale on Friday night, and rearrange them on Saturday morning before the doors open at 9 am. We also need help with the bake sale, and solicit your support By baking items and delivering them to the church on the afternoon of November 23rd. We need help that afternoon to package and price these items and as some of the usual volunteers are in the musical presentation, so we need help during the sales period Friday from 4-7. Books, CD's, records, cassettes, DVD's are needed and can be left in the hallway by the elevator at Trinity Centre. Help is needed putting the books, etc, out on Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. and restoring them, or getting them to another sales point following the Trinity sale on Saturday at 11:00 am.

If you can volunteer, please contact David Goss at 672 8601 or gosswalk@nbnet.nb.ca, or Harold Hazen at fhazen@nbnet.nb.ca

“Service of Light”: at Trinity Church, 115 Charlotte St., Nov. 29th, 2018, 7:00 pm. Our Lord Jesus Christ says, “Come to me all that labour and are heavy laden and I will refresh you. (Matthew 11:28) We invite everyone to join us for a time where we will soak in silence, listen to scripture, resonate with the music, light a memorial candle and ask for healing or a blessing all in the company of the Holy Spirit.

Seafarer’s Mission: Chi Rho will again be preparing Christmas Bags for the Seafarers. Anyone wishing to donate, the bags cost about $15.00. Donations can be made to Mrs. Joyce Rodgers or Archdeacon Hazen up to December 12th, 2018.

Mitten Tree: It is almost time to start preparing for our Mitten Tree which will soon be placed in the main hallway. Please start knitting hats, mittens, scarves and socks to decorate our Tree. If you are not a knitter, please consider purchasing some warm items. There is a great need in our parish for both adult and children’s sizes. Your generosity and warm hearts will help keep some ears, fingers and toes cozy this winter!

Please: bring in your used stamps and place them in the basket provided in the main hall. The stamps are sent off to be sold and end up benefitting underprivileged children in the third world.

Trinity Cereal Sunday:

The first Sunday of each month is Cereal Sunday. Please pick up an extra box of cereal with your grocery order and bring it to Church on this Sunday. By this gift Trinity is supporting St. Luke’s street ministry who make available through the week cereal to anyone who comes through their doors. Each Sunday, Trinity receives upwards of thirty boxes which are delivered on the following Monday. “What an amazing collection of cereal! The support of your congregation continues to humble me!” Many Blessings – Rob Pitman

COMMUNITY EVENTS

The SYMPHONY CHORUS & Orchestra: under the direction of Spencer Belyea, will present a special concert at TRINITY CHURCH on Fr. Nov. 23rd at 7:30 pm. The evening of angelic music will celebrate All Saints...those that have gone before...and the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War. Featured will be Faure’s famous REQUIEM and elegant CANTIQUE with New Brunswick’s well-known operatic baritone, PAUL BUSTIN, along with the 50-VOICE CHORUS and CHAMBER ORCHESTRA will be Saint John recitalist MICHAEL MOLLOY on Trinity’s new ORGAN, along with King’s Choral Scholar, soprano MARY LOUISE BELYEA. $30.00 advance tickets ($35 at the door) are available now through the Imperial Theatre (674-4100) and $10 for students.

Thank you for supporting local musicians,
