

ANNOUNCING

Trinity Church Saint John

SUMMER SOUNDS 2023

Monday nights at 7:15

June 12- August 28

This weekly series will feature some easy listening and some classical selections, and one narrative evening. The programs will delight and enlighten listeners. A free will offering will be taken - 50% to the performers and 50% to Trinity renovations

June 12: Before the Mast- New Brunswick's premier Sea Shanty performers

June 19: Sing-a-long with Ron Maloney – old-time favourites

June 26: Easy Listening & Humour with the Cool Chicks and Ugly Doclings

July 03: Cathedral Organist – Richard Kidd

July 10: Local Musical Recordings (1930—1970) with historian Harold E. Wright

July 17: Praise Music – Calvary Temple Music Team

July 24: String Ensemble – Symphonette Quintet

July 31: Music for the Stage – Soprano Mary Louise Belyea

August 07: Andrew Clark -Balladeer and Guitarist extraordinaire

August 14: Choral Folk Songs -The Saint John Chorale & Spencer Belyea

August 21: Evening Strings with Stephen Mott and Friends

August 28: Pipe Organ Favorites with Recitalist Michael Molloy

Performers will announce their programs at time of presentation.
The doors will open at 7:00 p.m. at both Charlotte Street and Germain Street entrances.

Come and enjoy Trinity's English Gothic architecture and the spiritual ambience of the historic Loyalist Church ...and the delightful musical presentations we have planned.

SUMMER SOUNDS is coordinated by Trinitarians David Goss and Spencer Belyea.
For details or changes of program, call 506 693-8558 or gosswalk@nbnet.nb.ca.