ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

O CANADA

Remember before God, and commend to his mercy and keeping, those who have died for their country in war; those whom we know and whose memory we treasure; and all who have laid down their lives for humanity. Let us pray.

O God, we remember before you those who laid down their lives for freedom and truth. We commend their souls into your gracious keeping, and pray that your grace may make us worthy of their sacrifice. Help us to be faithful and true to those ideals for which they fought and died. May we continue to perpetuate the memory of our departed comrades by our service to Veterans and their loved ones, and remembering our solemn obligations, may we ever pray. Lord God of hosts, be with us yet.

All: Lest we forget, lest we forget.

THE LAST POST

One Minute of Silence

REVEILLE

They shall not grow old, as we who are left grow old; Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn; At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

All: We will remember them.

THE LAYING OF THE WREATH

Poem 'IN FLANDERS FIELDS' (by Dr. John McCrae)

THE ROYAL ANTHEM - 'God Save the King'

Lord's Prayer page 85

Post-Communion Prayer Heavenly Father, We thank You for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of Your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ: and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of Your Son, and heirs of Your eternal Kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work You have given us to do, to love and serve You as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To Him, to You, and to the Holy Spirit, be honour and glory, now and forever. Amen

Hymn HB 422 Faith of Our Fathers (St. Finbar)

Choral Benediction Go Now In Peace

Go now in Peace, never be afraid, God will go with you each hour of every day. Go now in Faith, steadfast, strong and true. Know he will guide you in all you do. Go now in Love and show you believe, reach out to others so all the world can see. God will be there watching from above. Go now in Peace, in Faith and in Love. Amen, Amen, Amen

THE MARCH OF TIME

They march along to the beat of the band,
These are the vets who fought in a foreign land.
There are fewer today as time goes by,
Age catches up and they die.

Shoulders stooped, limps, canes and aching thigh,
These proud soldiers march with heads held high.
Their steps are spry as they pass through the crowd,
Young once, older now, but just as proud.

They know the meaning of "Lest We Forget."
As they remember comrades who paid the supreme debt.
On to the cenotaph rank and file,
To lay the wreaths in accustomed style.

It is a sight that pulls at the stout hearted,
As silence is observed for those who have departed.
I am grateful to these men and their mates,
"LEST US NOT FORGET" them, on this date.

John D. Grant, Nov. 1 – 2000

In Flanders Fields

IN FLANDERS FIELDS the poppies blow
Between the crosses row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, MD (1872-1918) Canadian Army
