The Names of the Fallen

O CANADA

Remember before God, and commend to his mercy and keeping, those who have died for their country in war; those whom we know and whose memory we treasure; and all who have laid down their lives for humanity. Let us pray.

O God, we remember before you those who laid down their lives for freedom and truth. We commend their souls into your gracious keeping, and pray that your grace may make us worthy of their sacrifice. Help us to be faithful and true to those ideals for which they fought and died.

May we continue to perpetuate the memory of our departed comrades by our service to Veterans and their loved ones, and remembering our solemn obligations, may we ever pray. Lord God of hosts, be with us yet.

All: Lest we forget, lest we forget.

THE LAST POST

REVEILLE

Act of Remembrance
They shall not grow old, as we who are left grow old; Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn; At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

All: We will remember them.

One Thousand Men Are Walking

One thousand men are walking
Walking side by side
Singing songs from home
The spirit as their guide

They walk toward the light milord
They walk towards the sun
They smoke and laugh and smile together
No foes to outrun

These men live on forever
In the hearts of those they saved
A nation truly grateful
For the path of peace they paved

They march as friends and comrades
But they do not march for war
Step closer to salvation
A tranquil steady corps

The meadow lit with golden beams
A beacon for the brave
The emerald grass untrampled
A reward for what they gave

They dream of those they left behind
And know they dream of them
Forever in those poppy fields
There walks one thousand men

Joshua Dyer (2019)

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

IN FLANDERS FIELDS the poppies blow
Between the crosses row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
